As soon as you've booked

- [ ] Check your passport: valid for your entire stay, with a blank page.
- [ ] Arrange travel medical insurance and check what your health plan covers abroad.
- [ ] Book your day trip to Klein Curaçao: popular boats are full days ahead. naarcuracao.com/en/klein-curacao-best-trips-comparison
- [ ] Book your favorite excursions, such as snorkeling with dolphins.
- [ ] Reserve your rental car (scarce in peak season).

4 weeks before departure

- [ ] Make sure you have a credit card (handy for the rental car deposit).
- [ ] Book your airport taxi if you're not picking up a car. naarcuracao.com/en/tour-item/transfer-curacao
- [ ] Buy reef-safe sunscreen and after-sun.
- [ ] Pack your chargers: outlets are US-style (127 volts), no adapter needed.
- [ ] Bring your own snorkel set, or check whether one is included in your trip.
- [ ] Look up restaurants and reserve the most popular ones. naarcuracao.com/en/restaurants-on-curacao

The week before departure

- [ ] Tell your bank you're traveling and check foreign transaction fees.
- [ ] Arrange mobile data: an eSIM or your carrier's international plan.
- [ ] Download an offline map of Curaçao in Google Maps or Maps.me.
- [ ] Check the weather on a rain radar or webcam.

24 to 48 hours before departure

- [ ] Check in online with your airline.
- [ ] Fill in the DI Card for everyone (kids too) and print it. naarcuracao.com/en/di-card-digital-immigration-card
- [ ] Save your booking confirmations (excursions, car, hotel) on your phone.

In your carry-on

- [ ] Passport, printed DI Card, driver's license, debit card and credit card
- [ ] Medication for the whole trip (in the original packaging)
- [ ] Chargers and a power bank
- [ ] A sweater or cardigan: it's cold on the plane

In your suitcase

- [ ] Swimwear, UV shirt and water shoes
- [ ] Sunglasses, cap or sun hat, sunscreen and after-sun
- [ ] Insect repellent with DEET
- [ ] Light clothing and one nice outfit for dinner

Tip: book popular excursions such as Klein Curaçao and snorkeling with dolphins before you leave; in peak season they sell out fast. naarcuracao.com/en/klein-curacao-best-trips-comparison
